Andrews and Brewster home sales are up in April 2017, Ector County sales experience a decrease

Odessa Board of REALTORS® releases real estate statistics for April 2017

ODESSA, Texas – May 23, 2017 – Andrews County home sales increased 280% along with an increase of 180% in Brewster County, while Ector County experienced a decrease in sales of 21.6% for the month of April 2017. Home prices decreased by 13.7% in Andrews County 18.2% in Brewster County and 6.1% in Ector County, according to the April 2017 housing market report released today by the Odessa Board of REALTORS®.

Brent Sims, 2017 President of the Odessa Board of REALTORS® said, “Home prices dropped slightly in April which brings music to the ears of potential home buyers. This trend is predicted to be short lived due to the decrease in active listings hitting the market and the rise in consumer interest in purchasing a home soon.”

According to the reports, 87 homes were sold in Ector County in April 2017, a 21.6 percent decrease from the year prior. The median price for Ector County homes also decreased 6.1 percent year-over-year to $155,000 during the same time frame. There were 19 homes sold in Andrews County with a median sales price of $177,000 and 14 homes sold in Brewster County with a median sales price of $180,000.

The monthly housing inventory for April in Andrews County was 7.2 months, Brewster County 5.8 months and Ector County was 4.7 months. The Real Estate Center at Texas A&M University cites that 6.5 months of inventory represents a market in which supply and demand for homes is balanced.

Homes on the market in April spent an average of 93 days on the market in Andrews County, 242 days on the market in Brewster County and 61 days on the market in Ector County.
